world's longest powerboat race

By Road

From London and the M25

Take the M23 for Brighton. This becomes the A23. About 3 miles outside Brighton follow the signs for the A27 Worthing. This takes you around the back of Brighton and Hove. Proceed to the second exit and follow the signs to Portslade. Turn left at T-junction and then right at the traffic lights. Follow the road down to Portslade railway station where you turn right at the Queen Victoria public house into Victoria Road.

From the West

After crossing the river Adur at Shoreham flyover on the A27, proceed towards Brighton through tunnel. Then take the Portslade and West Hove turn-off, and follow the Portslade signs. Turn left at T-junction and then right at the lights. Follow the road down to Portslade railway station where you turn right at the Queen Victoria public house into Victoria Road.

By Rail

Train from London, Victoria to either Brighton or Hove. Change onto the local service 'Coastway West' and travel one or two stations to 'Portslade and West Hove' station. On leaving the station cross the level crossing and turn left into Victoria Road. From Portsmouth, all Brighton trains stop at Portslade.

By Sea

Car Ferries - Via Portsmouth

Leave the docks and follow the signs to the Motorway. Follow 'M27 Brighton' signs onto the A27. Then proceed as 'From West'.

Via Sheerness, Dover, Folkestone.

Follow the signs to London until you reach the M25. Follow the route signposted 'Gatwick airport' until you reach the M23. Then proceed as 'From London'.

By private yacht

Moor in Brighton Marina, approximately 4 miles East of town centre (They listen on channel 80). Take a rental car from close to the Eastern pier and follow the signs to Brighton.

Via Newhaven

Leave ferry terminal following 'Lewes' signs and join A27 going West. Then proceed as 'From London'.

By Air

Via London Heathrow

Take underground tube train (London Transport) to Victoria, transfer to main line railway station and proceed as 'By Rail'.

Via Gatwick

Take train to Brighton or Hove and proceed as 'By Rail'.

By Private Plane
